

ab-Original

Journal of Indigenous Studies and
First Nations and First Peoples' Cultures

vol. 2 no. 2 2018

SPECIAL ISSUE

The Entangled Gaze: Indigenous and European Views of Each Other 125
Gerald McMaster, Julia Lum, and Kaitlin McCormick

CONFERENCE EXTRACTS

View from the Canoe vs. the View from the Ship: The Art of Alliance 141
Rick Hill

Qaujimanira: Inuit Art as Autoethnography 151
Krista Ulujuk Zawadski

ARTICLES

"The First Real Indians That I Have Seen": Franz Boas and the Disentanglement of the Entangled 157
Rainer Hatoum

Art as a Weapon: The Inverted Gaze in Julius Lips
The Savage Hits Back 185
Anna Katharina Brus

Pocahontas Looks Back and Then Looks Elsewhere: The Entangled Gaze in Contemporary Indigenous Art 207

Monika Siebert

Verwoben in “Indianthusiasm”: A Uniquely German Entanglement 227

Nicole Perry

Frederick Alexcee’s Entangled Gazes 246

Kaitlin McCormick

Gud Gii AanaaGung: Look at One Another 265

Kathryn Bunn-Marcuse and Jisgang Nika Collison

“Rather Unusual Stuff”: Nathan Jackson’s Early Advent of a Tlingit Modern 300

Christopher Green

REVIEWS

Exhibition Review: Americans; National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution 327

Reviewed by Pablo N. Barrera

Indigenous Intermediaries: New Perspectives on Exploration Archives, edited by Shino Konishi, Maria Nugent, and Tiffany Shellam; and Brokers and Boundaries: Colonial Exploration in Indigenous Territory, edited by Tiffany Shellam, Maria Nugent, Shino Konishi, and Allison Cadzow 331

Reviewed by Kate Fullagar